Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . , the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (A) the time spent on such services;

- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

- 37. The services for which KPMG seeks compensation and the expenditures for which KPMG seeks reimbursement in this Application were necessary for and beneficial to the orderly administration of the Debtors' estates and their rehabilitation and reorganization effort. KPMG worked assiduously to anticipate or respond to the Debtors' needs and assist in the Debtors' chapter 11 processes. These services and expenditures were necessary to and in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and creditors. Accordingly, the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest.
- 38. In accordance with sections 327(a) and 328(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, KPMG has been a "disinterested person," as such term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, and has not held or represented any interest adverse to the Debtors' estates, at all times during the Final Period.
- 39. In sum, the services rendered by KPMG were necessary and beneficial to the Debtors' estates and were consistently performed in a timely manner commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the issues involved, and approval of the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses sought herein is warranted.

KPMG's liability for any losses incurred by the Debtors as a result of breach of contract, negligence, or other tort committed by KPMG, regardless of the theory of liability asserted, as set forth in the Fresh Start SOW, shall be limited to no more than the total amount of fees paid to KPMG for services rendered under the Fresh Start SOW.
- 17. KPMG's limitation of liability, as set forth above and in the Master Agreement and SOWs shall not apply to claims arising out of KPMG's own bad faith, self-dealing, breach of fiduciary duty, gross negligence, or willful misconduct, if any.
- 18. The Master Agreement expires, upon its terms, on December 31, 2007, whereupon KPMG and the Debtors may extend the Master Agreement for successive one year periods. Each SOW shall become effective as of the date of the commencement of services to be rendered under such SOW, or, if earlier, the date of execution of such SOW. Each SOW shall remain effective until the completion of the services to be rendered under the applicable SOW.
- 19. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Master Agreement or SOWs, KPMG and the Debtors may terminate the Master Agreement or any SOW in the event of a material breach of the Master Agreement that is not cured within 30 days after receipt of written notice of such breach. Additionally, under the Master Agreement, the Debtors may terminate any SOW for convenience at any time upon 30 days' prior written notice. KPMG may terminate any SOW at any time upon 30 days' notice to the Debtors in the event of any change in law, rule, regulation, or professional standards that would cause the continued provision of the services under such SOW by KPMG to violate such law, rule, regulation, or professional standard or in the event of a sale by KPMG of the practice providing the services under such SOW if the Debtors elect not to consent to an assignment to the party acquiring such practice from KPMG. The terminating party shall provide the Court, the Office of the United States Trustee, counsel for the Creditors' Committee, and counsel for the Fee Committee with ten business days' notice of termination.

- 20. Any party-in-interest shall have the right to raise the issue of the application of KPMG's prepetition retainer to postpetition fees and expenses.
- 21. To the extent that this Third Supplemental Retention Order is inconsistent with the Master Agreement or SOWs, this Third Supplemental Retention Order shall govern.
- 22. With the exception of KPMG, the KPMG Member Firms providing services under the Master Agreement or SOW shall be permitted to use category codes to describe the time spent on services rendered, rather than the more detailed descriptions usually required for fee applications.
- 23. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation of this Third Supplemental Retention Order.

Summary of Hours and Discounted Fees Incurred By Professional
October 1, 2007 through October 6, 2009

Notes:

- (1) Although these timekeepers billed eight hours or less during any one month period, they are not Transitory Timekeepers because of (i) the nature of the services that they provided, (ii) the timing of the services they provided relative to the time of the month, or (iii) their supervisory role dictated a limited but valuable participation in the project.
- (2) Cynthia Kielkucki and Monica Sellers were promoted from the position of Sr. Associate to Manager on October 1, 2007.
- (3) Ragu Sadagopan and Anthony Guth were promoted from the position of Associate to Sr. Associate on October 1, 2007.
- (4) Jing Du is a Senior Associate with a $300 billing rate. KPMG mistakenly billed her at a rate of $200 in the January 2008 fee statement. This billing modification results in a upward adjustment of $11,600. The total adjustment for Jing Du, as identified in footnotes 3 and 4, is $43,250. To the extent further detail is necessary, KPMG would be happy to provide such detail.
- (5) Maria Santana was incorrectly billed as a J-1 Visa in February but should have been billed as U.S. Inbound Expatriate. The entire amount of $1750 is being billed under U.S. Inbound Expatriate and a credit of ($375) is being reported under J-1 Visa for the net due of $1,375.
- (6) This adjustment is necessary to correct a billing error on the October, 2007 fee statement. To the extent further detail is necessary, KPMG would be happy to provide such detail.
- (7) This adjustment is necessary to correct a billing error on the November and December 2007 fee statement regarding Exhibit D23. To the extent further detail is necessary, KPMG would be happy to provide such detail.
- (8) This adjustment is necessary to correct a billing rate error on the October, November and December 2007 fee statement. Jing Du is a Senior Associate with a $300 billing rate. KPMG mistakenly billed her at a rate of $250 in the October 2007 and $200 in the November and December 2007 fee statements. This billing modification results in a upward adjustment of $31,650 for the months reference above. To the extent further detail is necessary, KPMG would be happy to provide such detail.
